Mr. Frank Petrov

Dear Frank:

On behalf of Daily Planet's board of directors and staff, thank you very much for your time and the resources you have donated toward hosting of the Daily Planet web site for 2007 and agreeing to do so again for 2008.

As you may already know, the need for the Daily Planet's services is greater than ever and getting the word out to the public is our major resource.

The Daily Planet offers a wide variety of services to the homeless and under-privileged population. In addition to providing primary health care to the homeless, the Daily Planet continues to offer case management services, transitional housing for the mentally ill, on-site mail, laundry and shower services, along with job training and placement services

You have been extremely generous with your time and resources and we appreciate it.

Sincerely,
